

Women's Basketball

The Penguins' first year of competition was in 1975-76 under Joyce Ramsey, who was also the first coach of the YSU volleyball team. The program has had only had five head coaches, including current coach Cindy Martin. The Penguins won five conference championships while in the Mid-Continent Conference. The Penguins won three postseason tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament three times (2000, 1998, 1996). YSU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 1998 beating Memphis in the first round before losing at North Carolina State. All-time, the Penguins have had five players named Conference Player of the Year. YSU has had 22 all-conference selections since 1983-84 as members of the Ohio Valley, Mid-Con and Horizon League. The program has had seven 20-win seasons, including a school best 28 wins in 1997-98. Coach Ed DiGregorio was a key figure on the sidelines spending 20 years with the program compiling a 319-241 record from 1983-84 through 2002-03.

Dorothy Bowers • 1984-88

One of the most recognizable names in the history of Youngstown State women's basketball is that of Dorothy Bowers (1984-88), the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,324 career points.

Bowers' influence on the court and the YSU basketball program was immediately felt.

During her freshman campaign, the Youngstown, Ohio, native was selected to the Ohio Valley Conference All-Freshman Team after scoring 254 points for an average of 9.4 points per game. She also averaged 7.0 rebounds per game.

In 1985-86, Bowers dominated the hardwood averaging 23.9 points and 11.6 rebounds as a sophomore while shooting a blistering 56 percent from the floor.

That same year she was named second-team All-OVC.

Bowers continued her dominance in 1986-87 as a junior with 24.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per game.

She was named first-team All-OVC after connecting on 50.8 percent of her field goal attempts.

As a senior, Bowers set the school's single-season scoring record with 783 points, breaking the old mark of 710 set by Wanda Grant in 1980-81.

With her 28.0 points and 11.6 rebounds per game, Bowers was named the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year.

Bowers also owns the school records for most field goals in a career (977), highest field goal percentage (.544), most points in a single-game (49) and most field goals in a game (21).

Bowers, who owns a career scoring average of 21.5 points per game, also ranks second all-time with 1,083 career rebounds and 370 career free throws made.

Liz Hauger • 1993-97

A catalyst during the Penguins run to their first NCAA Tournament appearance was Liz Hauger (1993-97).

During her junior season in 1995-96, Hauger led the Penguins to a 20-9 record and their first 20-win season since 1990-91. The Penguins also won the Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament championships.

Hauger paced the Penguins with a 16.4 scoring average and was named first-team All-Mid-Continent Conference.

The following season, Hauger turned in an even more impressive campaign. She led the Penguins in scoring for the second straight season with an average of 18.7 points per game and was named the Mid-Con Player of the Year.

The Penguins recorded their second consecutive 20-win season with an overall mark of 23-6 and captured the league's regular season crown. YSU, however, missed out on their second straight NCAA Tournament appearance after losing in the tournament championship game to Troy State, 89-75.

Hauger was also vital in the Penguins first of five straight Mid-Continent Conference championships in 1994-95.

As a sophomore, Hauger was one of the Penguins top offensive threats with a 12.5 scoring average. She connected on 42.2 percent of her field goal attempts and helped guide the Penguins to a 17-11 overall record and a 14-4 league mark. In 1994-95, she was named second-team all-conference.

Hauger currently ranks eighth all-time with 1,468 career points, and third all-time with 328 career free throws made.

PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Shannon Beach • 1993-98

Although she missed most of her first two seasons due to knee injuries, Shannon Beach (1993-98) was an impact player for the Penguins during their first two trips to the NCAA Tournament.

In 1995-96 as a red-shirt sophomore, Beach was an essential ingredient in the Penguins' run to the NCAA.

She averaged 10.5 points and 8.6 rebounds per game and was also named the Mid-Continent Conference Tournament Most Valuable Player after defeating Buffalo, 53-43, in the championship game.

Beach earned second-team all-conference accolades as a junior after helping the Penguins to a 23-6 record in 1996-97. Her 13.7 points per game ranked fourth on the squad but she led the team in rebounding with 8.6 boards per game.

It was this season when Beach developed into a dangerous three-point shooter, connecting on 57-of-152 three-point attempts.

As a senior, Beach was an integral part of the team that set the school record for most wins in a season with a 28-3 mark in 1997-98. That same year, Youngstown State advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after upsetting Memphis, 91-80.

Beach, who missed four games that season, was one of top three-point shooters in the conference and drilled 40.7 percent of her three-point attempts.

The native of Atwater, Ohio, became the second straight YSU player to earn the Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year Award after averaging 13.8 points and 5.5 rebounds per game.

Beach currently ranks 13th on the all-time scoring list with 1,048 career points and is tied for third all-time with 146 career three-pointers.

Brianne Kenneally • 1997-2001

During her freshman season in 1997-98, people caught a glimpse of what the future had in store for Brianne Kenneally (1997-2001).

When senior Shannon Beach missed four games due to knee surgery, Kenneally replaced her in the starting lineup and the Penguins never skipped a beat. In the five games Kenneally started that season, she averaged an impressive 11.2 points per game.

Even when she was relegated back to her reserve role, Kenneally made an impact in the Penguins' biggest games of the season. The Brecksville, Ohio, native helped secure the Penguins' 28-3 record; was named to the Mid-Con's All-Newcomer Team; and averaged 12.5 points per game in two NCAA Tournament games.

Her sophomore season saw even more accolades come her way as she led the Penguins with 16.3 points per game and finished 15th in the nation with an 85.9 free throw percentage. Kenneally was then named the Mid-Con's Player of the Year.

As a junior in 1999-2000, Kenneally racked up a league-best 18.7 points per game to lead the Penguins to a 22-9 mark, their fifth straight 20-win season. The 5-foot-9 guard won the league's Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year and was named MVP of the Mid-Con Tournament after leading YSU to its third NCAA Tournament appearance.

Kenneally's final season was marked with triumph and tragedy as she was ranked third in the nation with a 24.5 scoring average when a knee injury ended her career.

She ranks seventh on the all-time scoring list with 1,471 points and owns the career mark for most free throws made with 373.
