

Women's Tennis

The program became a sport at YSU in 1983. The first coach was Rob Adsit. Currently, the women's program is coached by Michelle Grim. In 1998 and 1999, the Penguins placed third while in 2000 and 2001, YSU was fourth in the Mid-Continent Conference. In 2004, YSU placed third at the Horizon League Championships and followed with a second-place finish in 2005. Since 1994, they have had 15 all-conference picks, including 1996 Mid-Con Player of the Year Santi Nalluri. Nalluri was also named the Mid-Con's Newcomer of the Year in 1994. In 1995, YSU played host to the Mid-Con Women's Tennis Championships.
