PENGUINS

Jason Pacanowski is in his third season as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Youngstown State men's basketball program.

Pacanowski's responsibilities include team travel, film exchange, coordination of camps and a variety of administrative duties.

During the summer of 2010, the program hosted 25 teams in its one-day team camp under Head Coach Jerry Slocum. The camp used gyms in the Beeghly Center and Stambaugh Stadium on YSU's campus and at surrounding area high schools.

The Penguins' Full Court Individual Camp hosted 61 campers while the Half Court Camp had 79 participants.

As an undergraduate, Pacanowski served the Salukis as a team manager for four years under coaches Bruce Weber, Matt Painter and Chris Lowery. During his tenure at SIU, the Salukis reached the NCAA Sweet 16 during the 2006-07 season.

Pacanowski earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Illinois in 2006 and a master's degree in sports management from Southern Illinois in 2008.

Jason and his wife, Katie, live in Boardman.
