Setting the Scene

The Youngstown State women's basketball team will open its first two-game homestand in more than a month when it plays host to No. 20 Green Bay on Thursday evening at Beeghly Center. Tipoff against the Phoenix is set for 7:05 p.m. Live audio will be broadcast on 570 WKBN, and video will be streamed live on the Horizon League Network and run locally on a tape-delay basis on MyYTV at 11 p.m. The Penguins are 2-2 at home but have lost eight straight. Green Bay is 13-1 overall and has won four straight.

A Quick Look at the Penguins

Youngstown State enters this week with a 2-11 overall record and an 0-2 mark in league play. YSU is 2-2 at Beeghly Center, having closed out November by winning back-to-back games for the first time since March 8 and March 10. The Guins have lost eight straight games since then but have led two other contests by double-digits in the second half. Bob Boldon, a former assistant at Florida Gulf Coast, is in his first year as head coach. Forward Brandi Brown ranks tied-for-third in the league in scoring at 16.4 points per game. She has a league-high six double-doubles.

Scouting Green Bay

Green Bay (13-1, 2-0) was ranked No. 21 nationally in last week's poll and has won three games since. UWGB's only loss of the year came at Marquette, 63-60, on Dec. 12. Green Bay beat three Big Ten teams in its non-conference schedule and opened league play with home wins over Detroit (69-62) and Wright State (75-57). The Phoenix is forcing 25 turnovers per game and leads the conference in scoring offense (72. ppg) and scoring defense (52.4 ppg). Julie Wojta is one of four players averaging at least 11 points, and Kayla Tetschlag is the Horizon League's Preseason Player of the Year.

Last Game: L, 61-74 at UIC

UIC scored the final 20 points of the first half to offset a school-record-tying seven 3-pointers from Kenya Middlebrooks in a 74-61 victory over YSU on Sunday.

YSU led 27-21 with 5:38 remaining before the Flames scored the final 20 points of the half and the first three of the second period. Shameia Green had 14 of her 32 points during the 23-point spurt.

YSU was able cut the margin to nine twice in the second half after trailing by as many as 20.

Middlebrooks finished with a career-high 22 points, going 7-for-10 from 3-point range. Brandi Brown finished with her second straight double-double, posting 17 points and 15 rebounds.

UIC shot 50 percent for the contest while YSU shot 35.7 percent.

Quick Notes from UIC

- YSU led 27-21 with 5:34 remaining in the first period after going on a 12-3 run. UIC scored the next 23 points to take a 44-27 advantage.
- Kenya Middlebrooks scored a career-high 22 points and tied the school record with seven 3-pointers.
- Brandi Brown posted her sixth double-double of the year and her third in the last four games.
- Monica Touvelle played a career-high 24 minutes.
- YSU made at least 10 3-pointers for the third time this year. The last time the Guins had 10-or-more treys three times in a season was 2004-05.
- The Penguins were outscored 30-16 in the paint, including 18-2 in the first half.

Last Time vs. Green Bay

Green Bay made its first eight shots and never looked back as it defeated YSU 84-45 on March 4, 2010 to clinch at least a share of its 12th straight conference championship.

Green Bay took a 14-0 lead when Heather Golden hit a 3-pointer with 16:48 remaining. The Penguins kept things within arms reach and trailed 23-11 with 11:12 left but went without another field goal for more than nine minutes.

The Phoenix led 42-13 by the time YSU made another basket and went up 50-15 at halftime.

A win would...

- Snap YSU's eight-game losing streak.
- Give YSU its third win this season, equaling the win total of the past two seasons combined.
- Improve YSU to 3-2 at home
- Give Bob Boldon his first league victory
- Be YSU's first against a ranked team since beating No. 23 Green Bay on Feb. 13, 2005

Green Bay outscored YSU just 34-30 in the second half as the Penguins shot 53.3 percent in the period. Green Bay shot 54 percent overall and 42.4 percent in the second half as substitutes played most of the final 15 minutes.

Why 2-11 is Still Encouraging

Although Youngstown State would like to have more than two wins at this juncture, it's hard to ignore the improvements that the Penguins have made from last year's 0-30 season.

- Most notably, YSU has shrunk the scoring margin from 25.8 points per game last year to 13.5 this year.
- The Penguins are averaging 6.6 more points and allowing 5.8 fewer points.
- Opponents are shooting 5.3 percent worse from the floor.
- The Penguins lost by at least 20 seven times in their first 13 games last year. They've done that just three times this year.
- YSU is committing 2.2 fewer turnovers and forcing 2.7 more per contest.
- YSU led Western Michigan by 24 and Winthrop by 14 in the second half in losses.

What Happened in the 20-0 Run?

Without question, the turning point of Sunday's game at UIC was the 20-0 run that the Flames went on to close the first half. Prior to the run, YSU led 27-21 and had just completed a 12-3 bulge. UIC called a 30-second timeout to regroup and proceeded to make nine straight shots – six lay-ups, two 3-pointers and a jumper. In the meantime, during YSU's nine possessions during the run, the Penguins missed five 3-pointers and a jumper and committed four turnovers. UIC also scored the first three points of the second half to extend the run to 23-0.

Need to Stop Scoring Droughts

Youngstown State went scoreless for 6:28 at UIC on Sunday as the Flames turned the game with a 23-0 run. The Penguins have had scoring droughts lasting at least 3-½ minutes in each of their first 13 games, and they've gone scoreless for more than 5:20 six times. The longest drought lasted 11:35 in the first half at Kent State as the Golden Flashes scored 25 straight points.

Field Goal Dry Spells

YSU has been particularly been doomed by lengthy dry spells from the field this year. The Guins have gone without a field goal for more than four minutes in every contest, and they've faced droughts of more than 6:25 in eight games. In those eight contests, YSU was either in the lead or within three points at the start of the field goal drought. The Guins ended up losing each of those games. YSU was tied at Pitt, up seven at Kent State, down three at American, up one against Akron, up 13 against Winthrop, up one at Loyola and up six at UIC.

Penguins Happy to Be Home

Youngstown State has played just one home game since it won back-to-back contests on Nov. 24 and Nov. 27. Since then, the Guins have played seven out of eight games on the road.

YSU has been a much better team at home than on the road. The Guins shoot 6.5 percent better at Beeghly Center than on the road and average 9.9 more points. The most notable difference is second-half scoring. YSU is averaging 38.8 points in the second half at home and 24 on the road.

	Home	Road
Points/game	62.0	52.1
Opponents	63.0	71.1
2nd Half points/game	38.8	24.0
Shooting	35.7 %	29.2 %

Middlebrooks Ties School Record En Route to Career-High in Scoring

Junior Kenya Middlebrooks is coming off scoring a career-best 22 points in YSU's last game at UIC on Sunday. Middlebrooks tied the school record for 3-pointers in a game with seven, and she added a free throw. Middlebrooks had set career highs of 16 points and 18 points the previous two times she played against UIC.

Middlebrooks became the ninth player in school history to post seven treys in a contest. The other eight, listed from most recent to oldest, are: Kaitlyn March (2010), Kristy Gaudiose (2006), Barb Fabianova (2005), Devin Novak (2003), Leslie Majewski (2000 and 1999), Shannon Beach (1997), Caroline McCombs (1997) and Dianne Rappach (1989).

Three With Double-Doubles

Three Youngstown State players have posted a double-double at some point this season. That is tied for the Horizon League high with Cleveland State, Green Bay and Wright State. YSU sophomore forward Brandi Brown leads all league players with six double-doubles. She has 19 double-doubles in her 43-game career and three in the past four contests. Bojana Dimitrov and Tieara Jones both have one apiece. Brown and Jones each had a double-double in YSU's loss at Loyola on Friday.

Scoring Margin Improvement is Horizon League's, Ohio's Best

Youngstown State has improved its scoring margin by 12.3 points from last season to this season, which is by far the best improvement in the Horizon League. YSU was outscored by 25.8 points per game last season, and that number has dropped substantially to 13.5 points this year. Next in line is Wright State with a 6.2-point improvement. YSU also has the best improvement among Division I schools in Ohio. Kent State is second at 9.4 points.

Success in First Years of Decades

If historical trends hold true, YSU has a lot to look forward to in 2011. The program has enjoyed success in years ending in "1". In 1981, 1991 and 2001, the Penguins have a combined record of 50-27. YSU was 17-7 in 1981, 24-4 in 1991 and 9-16 in 2001.

Respectable vs. Green Bay at Home

Youngstown State has played relatively well against Green Bay at Beeghly Center in each of the past two seasons. Last year, YSU held a 28-22 lead against the 18th-ranked Phoenix before Green Bay's 16-0 run helped it to a 76-60 win. The Penguins shot 50 percent – their best mark in almost four years – against Green Bay. Two years ago, YSU trailed just 36-35 before Green Bay scored 12 straight points as part of a 16-2 run.

Guins Succeeding Academically

The women's basketball program at YSU enjoyed another strong semester in the classroom. As a team, the Penguins recorded a 3.24 grade-point average. Nine of the 13 players on the roster had at least a 3.0 GPA this past fall, and eight student-athletes have a cumulative GPA off at least 3.0. Bojana Dimitrov and Kaitlin Rohrs both posted a 4.0 GPA during the fall.

Turning the Page to League Slate

Since joining the Horizon League in the 2001-02 season, YSU has had four head coaches – Ed DiGregorio, Tisha Hill, Cindy Martin and Bob Boldon. The Penguins have finished with eight conference wins twice – in 2001-02 and 2007-08. YSU has lost 38 of its last 39 Horizon League games.

Brown Looks to Build on Notable First Year in League Games

Brandi Brown will try to build on a solid start to her career in the Horizon League. Last year, Brown had 11 double-doubles in 18 regular-season league games. She averaged 12.3 points and 11.3 boards in league games last year en route to being named to the all-newcomer team. In her first two league games this year, Brown is averaging 19 points and 13 rebounds.

Getting Familiar With Winning

No player on Youngstown State's current roster had ever won back-to-back games as a Penguin prior YSU's consecutive wins over Bucknell and Ohio. Only Makala Gasparek, Kenya Middlebrooks and Macey Nortey had experienced a victory wearing Red and White prior to beating Bucknell. The trio had three wins in 63 games. They experienced wins twice in four days.

Bob Boldon
Head Coach
First Season at Youngstown State

Northeast Ohio native and experienced assistant Bob Boldon is in his first season as the head women's basketball coach at Youngstown State.

Prior to his arrival in Youngstown, Boldon spent three successful seasons as a collegiate head coach and 10 years as a college assistant. Five of those 10 years have been at the Division I level. He spent last season as the top assistant coach at Division I Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Fla. YSU is his first Division I head coaching position.

In his most recent head coaching stint, Boldon orchestrated the best season in school history in 2008-09 at NAIA Lambuth University. He led the Eagles to school bests with 29 wins, a final No. 3 national ranking and an .853 winning percentage. Lambuth was the runner-up for the national title, and Boldon was recognized as the Association of Independent Institutions Coach of the Year.

At the University of Arkansas at Monticello, Boldon helped lead a major improvement for the Division II Cotton Blossoms. He inherited a team that went 1-15 in conference play the year prior to his arrival, and he immediately brought them up to an 8-8 mark, which was the school's best conference record in five years.

Boldon has served on the bench with two national coaches of the year and a conference coach of the year. He has spent four seasons with Karl Smesko, including last year at FGCU, and five with Jodi Kest, the head coach at Akron. He also spent a year with Jerry Scheve.

Boldon, a 34-year-old native of Louisville, Ohio, graduated from Walsh in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. As a student-athlete, he was a two-time All-America selection as a point guard and helped lead the Cavaliers to the semifinals of the NAIA Tournament. A four-year starter, he remains the school record holder in assists (775) while also ranking fourth in scoring with 1,694 points.

Boldon and his wife, Diana, have three sons - Tyler and twins Luke and Zach.

Media Credentials

Requests for working media credentials for Youngstown State women's basketball home games should be directed to John Vogel in the YSU Sports Information Office by email (jvogel@ysu.edu) or phone (330) 941-1480. Please submit requests a week prior to the game.

Media Services

Complete individual and team statistics, a running play-by-play, and halftime statistics will be made available to all media. On game day, game notes, updated statistics, game programs and media guides will be available. Telephones and wireless Internet are available before, during and after the game for media use.

Postgame Interviews

The YSU women's basketball locker room is closed. Postgame interviews will be conducted in Room 103 of Beeghly Center. After a brief cooling off period, head coach Bob Boldon will meet with the media. Players will be available on a request basis. Please let John Vogel or a member of the Sports Information Staff know of your needs before the end of the game. Postgame procedures on the road are dependent upon the hosting SID.

Photographers

Two photography areas exist at each end of the court. Photographers will not be allowed to take photos along the sidelines. A standard flash is not permitted, but use of photo strobes is available. Credentials must be requested through the YSU Sports Information Office.

Interviews During the Week

The best time for interviews is generally immediately before or after practice. Phone interviews with out-of-town media will also be handled through the sports information office. Practices are open, but please notify the sports information office to verify practice times.
